

NATIONAL FFA
CAREER AND LEADERSHIP
DEVELOPMENT EVENTS

Handling and Restraining Practicum

Restraint of the Dog for Cephalic Venipuncture

Participant must talk through practicum steps with judge.

| CRITERIA | Points Possible | Points Earned |
|---|-----------------|---------------|
| The student places a noose leash on the dog. | 2 | |
| The student restrains the dog in sternal recumbency. | 5 | |
| The student stands on the dog's right side; wrapping his/her right arm around the dog's neck. | 5 | |
| The student holds the dog's left forelimb with elbow in the palm of his/her hand; extend the limb forward toward the person performing the procedure. | 6 | |
| With the elbow of the dog in his/her palm, the student rotates his/her thumb up so it is on top of the limb at the bend of the elbow. | 6 | |
| The student occludes the vessel with the thumb, rotates the thumb laterally. | 6 | |
| TOTAL POINTS | 30 | |